

FLAGSHEEP

BEST OF SHOW

AMERICAN CHEESE SOCIETY 2012

Folding sheep and cow's milk into the recipe, Flag Sheep is dense, fruity and earthy with a butterscotch sweetness.

In addition, Flag Sheep is traditionally cloth-bound and open-air aged. This method allows a 14 to 16% moisture loss during aging.

- Firm, natural rind, pasteurized cow and sheep milk cheese
- Affinage: Aged at 50 degrees and 90% humidity. Each truckle is first rubbed with butter. Then, they are hand-turned on a daily basis during the first two months of aging, three times a week for the following two months and then once per week through the remainder of the aging process.
